Question 1:

Do you think the atmosphere of Mr. Purcell's shop was cheerful or depressing ? Give reasons for your answer.

Answer:

I think the atmosphere around the shop of Mr. Purcell was quite dull and dreary. The shop was filled with frantic circles and frightened voices. The twittering and squeals and squeaks of birds ever made the matter worse and monotonous.

Question 2:

Describe the stranger who came to the pet shop. What did he want?

Answer:

The stranger who came to the pet shop was wearing a cheap ill-fitting suit. He had a shuttling glance and close-cropped hair. He wanted something in a cage.

Question 3:

(i) The man insisted on buying the doves because he was fond of birds. Do you agree?

(ii) How had he earned the five dollars he had ?

Answer:

(i) The man was not that much fond of birds. In fact he insisted on buying doves because he wanted to set the doves free. He seemed to be imprisoned for a long time. That is why he wanted to make the doves realise the importance of freedom.

(ii) The man had earned five dollars in a long period of ten years' hard labour. He had earned fifty cents a year.

Question 4:

Was the customer interested in the care and feeding of the doves he had bought? If not, why not? :

Answer:

I don't think the customer was interested in the care and feeding of the doves. This is because he set them free immediately after buying them.

I Want Something in a Cage Exercises Question and Answer

Exercises

Discuss the following topics in groups :

Question 1:

Why, in your opinion, did the man set the doves free?

Answer:

The man seemed to have been imprisoned for a long time. It was his love for freedom which inspired him to spend his hard earned money on buying the doves. He seemed to value freedom more than anything else. That is why, just after buying the doves, the man did not even pause for a moment to set the doves free.

Question 2:

Why did it make Mr. Purcell feel "vaguely insulted"?

Answer:

Mr. Purcell felt vaguely insulted because he had given the pair of doves at a good discount. He thought that the customer desperately needed the doves. He failed to understand as to why the man who had bargained for the best pair of doves had set them free.
